An open letter to The Greatest Generation of the 21st century

“Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same, or one day we will spend our sunset years telling our children and our children's children what it was once like in the United States where men were free.” - Ronald Reagan – 1967

Ronald Reagan's warning is documented in William Bennett's "Leading Cultural Indicators" report created in 1993. William's report documents America's decline from the 1960s through the 1990s. Ronald Reagan's prophetic warning to young Americans in the 1960s is coming to fruition before our eyes. Over the years I have been under the false impression we need only elect a few more honest politicians to get America back on track. I underestimated the depth of our depravity and the source of our troubles.

President Reagan lived through America's peaks and valleys and was part of the "The Greatest Generation" that restored America to the greatest country in the world. They endured 15 years of hardships we have yet to see, rose from the ashes of the Great Depression, conquered The Axis Powers in WWII, and rebuilt America. We produced the highest standard of living known to mankind. This remarkable recovery was based firmly on their love of God, family, and country. This foundation carried them through The Great Depression and allowed them to rebuild America. Everything we built was second to none. The nuclear family was strong and thrived with a single income, without any credit cards. Our education system was unequaled. Our God-given Bill of Rights and our freedoms were fought for, cherished, and secured. Families and not the government were the controlling authority. Members of the Armed Services and police were revered and honored. God was praised and not mocked.

Something went awry in the 1960s and this generation repudiated these values and commenced with their own values. Mainstream media propagandist Walter Cronkite promoted these pioneering changes as good for America. A "generation gap" was celebrated as we embarked on a new course. A gap with God was also created as we began removing Him from our schools, governments, and society. The need for change was reinforced by the forefathers of BLM and Antifa who burnt down our cities and colleges. Spitting on our servicemen and calling them "Baby Killers" and signs of "Die Pig Die" were the ultimate form of free speech. Walter assured us that our newly discovered constitutional right to abortion was going to reduce crime, strengthen families, reduce child abuse, improve education, bolster our economy and reduce welfare. The exact OPPOSITE happened. Reviewing the attached report from the 1960s to the 1990s reveals catastrophic results in ALL social indicators from drug abuse, abortions, break up of the family unit, crime, poverty, and education. Things have gotten worse since the 1990s. Every institution including education, government, religion, and the private sector has been corrupted and is now actively facilitating our country's demise.

In 1987 presidential candidate Gary Hart was the "next JFK" until a picture surfaced with him sitting with a younger girl on the dock. He dropped out of the race and his career was over. Today we have Jeffrey Epstein pimping underage children to thousands of high-level pedophiles including politicians, athletes, movie stars, and industry leaders and NOT ONE pedophile has been investigated. Many folks in the 1950s didn't lock their doors at night. Today we are compelled to arm ourselves at home and abroad. There really was a time when our children weren't strung out on drugs. Today they're dying from heroin and fentanyl overdoses, intentionally imported through our welcoming borders. Instead of discouraging drug use, our leaders are encouraging them by offering free needles and legalizing all drugs including heroin. Drug overdoses spiked 700% in Oregon, what are the odds? There used to be plenty of responsible adults around discouraging bad behavior and guiding us in the right direction. Now they're destroying our youth and our country. We've aborted 62 million of our children and celebrate it as the defining right of womanhood. Unfortunately for young folks today, Social Security and Medicare are going broke because a majority of those aborted are not able to chip into these Ponzi schemes. We've replaced God in our schools with metal detectors and counselors. Mass shootings and violence have become commonplace. We were ranked #1 in education and now we're ranked between 15th and 30th in core subjects, despite spending in the top three internationally. While the Chinese kids struggle with calculus, our kids struggle to choose a bathroom. If there's any consolation, we rank #1 in self-esteem which suggests we are stupid and proud of it. Cities were actually vibrant and self-sufficient and not cesspools of crime and decay. Americans used to purchase what they could afford without credit cards. Today personal debt is at record levels and our government has added twice as much debt in 10 years as the previous presidents for the past 220 years. We are spiritually, morally, and financially bankrupt. This didn't happen by chance.

Witnessing this decline over the years prompted me to write political articles, knock on thousands of doors during elections and engage in political dialogue at every opportunity. I was under the impression that we just need to elect a few more politicians who share our values to get America back on track. I now realize my focus was wrong. We are not battling corrupt politicians. We are battling pure evil. Mere mortals would not intentionally destroy our children, families, schools, country, and our relationship with God. Our soulless leaders are not motivated by money anymore, rather destroying our families and country is the incentive. We must continue our political battles, and secure and restore our elections but we must first root out the evil that prevails today. It worked in the 1930s and 1940s and can certainly work again. I see a lot of positive signs with younger folks today including demanding accountability from our school board members, distrust of the established media and government, and demanding answers. It is imperative that you protect and guard your family with your life. Make sure YOU are raising your family and NOT the TV, internet, phones, schools, Facebook, etc.

The ball is in your court and the deck is stacked against you, but you can be part of "The Greatest Generation" in the 21st century. Continue to question everything and this includes God. God does not put us in gulags or cancel us if we question Him. Unlike communist dictators and woke tyrants here and abroad, God's relationship is not compulsory. It is based on faith, reason, and free will. God insists that we ask questions. As long as they are sincere with an open mind and open heart, the answers will become crystal clear. Proverbs 29:2 accurately describes where we are as a nation "When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn." If we are unwilling to fight for ourselves and our children, perhaps we can fight for those who sacrificed life and limb for our freedoms and our country. It will require getting off the shaky ground we're on and building upon a firm foundation. This really is the last bastion of freedom in the world and it must be fought for, protected, and handed down. Compare life before our collapse and life today. This is what life looks like when we remove God from society and lose our God-given rights and freedoms. We cannot defeat the enemies we are facing without Him.

Western media had no proof other than hearsay, which seems to be the new standard of “journalism” in this country.

It turns out that Denisova was a central figure feeding the Western media outlandish rape stories that she apparently just made up on the fly. And now the chickens have come home to roost for Denisova as she gets exposed for spreading lies about alleged war crimes that never happened.

What other lies is the Western media telling us about Russia?

Denisova’s goal was to paint Russians as “animals” who violently rape and harm anything they see. There were even false claims that Russian soldiers were eating stray dogs, which was another attempt at dehumanizing them and galvanizing Western support for Ukraine in this conflict.

According to the geopolitical analysis blog Moon of Alabama, various nongovernmental organizations (NGOs) in Ukraine were all on the hunt for new “Western” money to funnel into their “rape consultation and recovery” projects. When they searched for real-life rape cases to make their case, however, they could not find any.

These NGOs apparently then resorted to making up rape claims, which Denisova then spread to the Western media. Eventually, some caught on and wrote to Denisova requesting improved communication with only those cases bearing sufficient evidence.

“Sexual crimes during the war are family tragedies, a difficult traumatic topic, not a topic for publications in the spirit of the ‘scandalous chronicle,’” reads a May 25 appeal to Denisova calling on her to avoid sensationalism, excessive details, and other questionable content.

“We need to keep in mind the goal: to draw attention to the facts of crimes.”

The “rape as a tool” of war by the Russians narrative continued for some time, despite this petition. Only now is it beginning to visibly crumble, once again exposing the Western media and their sources in Ukraine as a pack of liars pushing a fraudulent agenda.

“Ukrainian lawmakers dismissed the country’s ombudsman for human rights, Lyudmyla Denisova, in a no-confidence vote on Tuesday, concluding that she had failed to fulfill obligations including the facilitation of humanitarian corridors and countering the deportation of Ukrainians from occupied territory,” reads a report from The Wall Street Journal.

Horrrifying Study Finds Microplastics in Lungs of 11 of 13 Living Patients...In Stool of Newborn Babies

Microplastics from COVID-19 face coverings get deep within your lungs

A study from the UK has found microplastics in surgical lung samples from 11 out of 13 patients—and masks are the culprit.

These small pieces of plastic not only negatively impact the environment just as much as a bottle or bag, but they can have harmful effects on an individual's health as well. The plastics found and inhaled in masks disrupt natural sex hormones, posing a risk to the health and fertility of developing children especially.

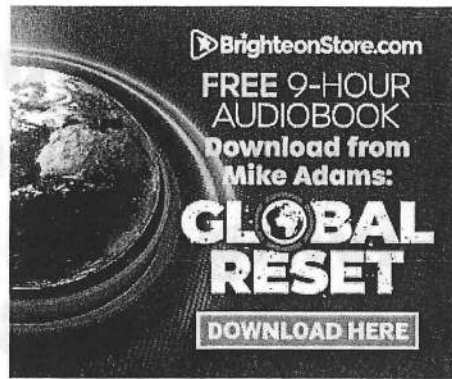

Microplastics can be inhaled from the day to day exposure to air pollution which most people encounter. However, it has been exasperated by the endemic face coverings during COVID-19.

One of the brains behind The World Economic Forum (WEF), is self-proclaimed prophet, Yuval Noah Harari. He believes in the Great Reset, in transhumanism, in culling the population, and using a global government to control humanity at the bio-metric level. He is praised by Bill Gates, Barack Obama Mark Zuckerberg, and Klaus Schwab, leader of the WEF.

Harari talks about "useless human beings" who do not have meaning or purpose. He said the greatest fake news is the Bible. He said Christianity is wrong, that humans are here on Earth for "nothing." "Jesus Christ is fake news," he balked. He believes there is "no great cosmic plan" that humans have a role to play in. Instead, he views humans as "useless eaters" who can be hacked and manipulated using digital surveillance under their skin.

He also believes in culling the population. "What do we need so many humans for?" he is quoted as saying while promoting his latest book.

Meet Yuval Noah Harari, a trans-humanist who wants to hack and manipulate human populations

In a recent interview, Harari said the world is entering a new industrial revolution, but the products will not be physical goods. Harari said science, technology, and industry's greatest challenge of the 21st century will be "to try to gain control of the world inside us, to learn how to engineer and produce bodies and brains and minds." He says these are likely to be the "main products" of the 21st century economy.

He said, "Once you know how to produce bodies and brains and minds so cheap labor in Africa and South Asia, it simply counts for nothing."

"The biggest question in maybe in economics and politics of the coming decades, will be what to do with all these useless people," he said with a straight face. He said technology will ensure that everyone is fed, so "food is not the problem."

“How dare you—You arrogant people!” Rep. Louie Gohmert RIPS INTO gun control freak and Former Boyfriend of Chinese Spy Eric Swalwell [VIDEO]

Deranged Democrats threaten to ban guns by any means necessary and blame Republicans for school shootings... Representative Louie Gohmert responds passionately

As Democrats threaten to ban guns by any means necessary, including through unconstitutional and unlawful methods, several Republican congressmen respond.

First, a look at the radical Democrats.

“You will not stop us from passing [gun control]. If the filibuster obstructs us, we will abolish it. If the Supreme Court objects, we will expand it. We will not rest until we’ve taken weapons of war out of circulation in our communities.” states an unhinged Representative Mondaire Jones (D-NY)

Trending: Hell Freezes Over...AP Reports On Arrest Of Well-Known Democrat Operative Involved in Sophisticated AZ Ballot Harvesting Scheme [VIDEO]

The Representative threatens that the Democratic party will pack the court and remove the filibuster to get what they want. That they will perform totalitarian, unlawful, and unconstitutional alterations to our legislative and judicial branches to gain complete control as they try to strip away our second amendment rights.

Rep. Eric Swalwell (D-CA) attempted to claim that Republicans don't do anything to prevent shootings, and that they are complicit with murder of children. Meanwhile, in the same breath that he implies that Republicans are okay with kids being killed he calls for abortion rights. Swalwell stated plainly that Republicans are on the side of killers in a disgusting and outrageous rant.

"How dare you. You Arrogant People. You think we don't have hearts?!" An enraged Rep. Gohmert (R-TX) states in response to Swalwell and other liberals claiming that the Republicans are complicit in the murder of children and are "on the side of the shooter."

"Democrats control the major cities that have the worst murder rates. Your ideas have been shown to get people killed!"

Meanwhile, other Republicans chimed in on the bill as well.

Representative Thomas Massie (R-KY) stated bluntly that the 6 unconstitutional gun control bills rolled into one will not work. Criminals do not obey gun laws, he states. "These are unserious. But they're worse than that, they're going to compromise the rights and the safety of individual citizens—law abiding citizens."

Massie speaks on how law abiding citizens are the ones who suffer from gun control laws, due to the fact that criminals do not follow the laws—meaning that when a citizen is disarmed by the law, the criminals can do as they will.

He also notes that schools are advertised as "soft targets." He argues indirectly for arming teachers so that schools have a way of defending their students. He believes that not only should the 6 bills be struck down, but that the gun-free school laws should be repealed.

Representative Jim Jordan (R-OH) shoots back that life is precious. That "no one wants this to happen. Protecting children is not a Republican or a Democrat issue." He argues that these partisan bills are not a real solution, that they won't protect schools and that the effort is just meant to appeal to Democrat voters in the primaries.

"The bill that Democrats are putting before us today is not helping us to understand what is really driving some young men to commit these heinous acts." He finished.

Representative Greg Steube (R-FL) was showcasing the various guns and magazines which would be banned by the Democrats' proposed legislation—all very practical firearms, when he was asked by the chairman if his guns were loaded. To which he responded humorously "I'm in my own home, and I'll do whatever I want with my guns."

The consensus among Republican Representatives is that these bills amount to political theater and grandstanding—they are ineffective, unconstitutional, and wrong. Representative Gohmert was right to be enraged by Swalwell's disgusting tirade. Republicans are not on the side of the killer.

Republicans are the only party trying to protect children in schools with practical laws, and by banning CRT and sexualization of children in schools. The Republicans are the only party trying to protect unborn babies from being murdered by the hundreds of thousands every year.

And the congressmen are right—no gun policies in Democrat cities and states lead to more loss of life, not less.
